WHAT IS THIS PRODUCT?

Type	Portfolio Closed-end Investment Fund
Investment objective	The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve rates of return reflecting percentage changes of the Benchmark Index – S&P500 Net Total Return for the same periods, regardless of currency fluctuations (PLN Hedged) and whether the Benchmark Index is in an upward trend or in a downward trend during these periods. The investment objective of the Fund will be carried out through the use of an investment strategy of continuous synthetic and physical replication of the current Benchmark Index structure, while limiting the impact of the currency risk on the achieved rates of return, through the use of hedging transactions limiting the Fund's exposure to the impact of foreign currencies. The fund does not guarantee that the investment objective will be achieved. The risk of failure to achieve the Fund's investment objective may materialize in the event of negative factors described in Chapter II of Prospectus "Risk factors".
Intended Investor Type:	This fund is for institutional investors and individuals who want to effectively invest in the portfolio of companies included in the Benchmark Index and accept the investment risk resulting from volatility of the stock market. Based on the level of risk and high volatility, a recommended investment horizon is 5 years. For investors with a high-risk aversion, investment in the fund should represent only a small part of their total investment portfolio.
Final Redemption	There is no final redemption date for the fund.
Dissolution of the fund	The fund is dissolved if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) the Management Company loses license, unless the management of the fund is undertaken by another management company within the period specified in the Investment Funds Act; b) the Depositary ceases to perform its duties, if there is no agreement on the execution of the function of the depositary to another depositary, not later than the end of the working day following the date of cessation of the exercise by the depositary c) expiry of the 6-month period during which the Management Company remained the single participant in the fund d) the PFSA issues the final decision on ordering the dissolution of the Fund e) the Management Company adopts a decision on dissolution of the Fund in cases described in Chapter 4.5 "The risk of dissolution of the Fund" in the Prospectus.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the market or because the Issuer is not able to pay you. The Issuer has classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-high level. The fund was classified in its category based on the historical volatility of the fund's benchmark - the S&P500 Net Total Return. The summary risk indicator considers the assumption that you will keep the product for 5 years. If you cash in on your investment at an early stage, the actual risk may vary considerably, and the return may be lower. The indicator does not consider operational risk, resulting from involvement in derivatives or liquidity risk. This product does not provide any protection against future market results, so you may lose some or all your investment. Be aware of the currency risk. Certificates of the fund are traded in PLN currency.
